London Bridge is Falling down

London Bridge is falling down,
Falling down, falling down,
London Bridge is falling down,
My fair Lady.

Build it up with wood and clay,
Wood and clay, wood and clay,
Build it up with wood and clay,
My fair Lady.

Build it up with bricks and mortar,
Bricks and mortar, bricks and mortar,
Build it up with bricks and mortar,
My fair Lady.

Build it up with iron and steel,
Iron and steel, iron and steel,
Build it up with iron and steel,
My fair Lady.

On the phone

The scene takes place on two different bridges in London. Two students, Reed and Riley are having a conversation on the phone. Each student is on a different bridge.

Reed: Hello there?

Riley: Hello Reed! Where are you?

Reed: I'm waiting for you at London Bridge.

Riley: Are you sure? I am standing in the middle of the bridge and I can't see you!

Reed: Wait a minute! It's crazy, I am in the middle of the bridge too!

Riley: This is really confusing! I can't see you!

Reed: Oh no! I am not at London Bridge but at Tower Bridge, the iron and steel bridge.

Riley: Oh! Right! The opening and closing bridge, the most famous bridge in London!

London's Burning

London's burning, London's burning.
Fetch the engines, fetch the engines.
Fire, fire,
Fire, fire!
Pour on water, pour on water.

The Great Fire of London, 1666.

Pudding Lane, London

The scene takes place in the old centre of London in a flat. A mother and her two children witness a fire.

Girl: Hey mummy!
I can smell something!

Mother: You are right!
I can see and smell smoke!

Boy: It is not in our house! Where can it be?

Mother: There is a fire in the bakery
and the shop is closed!

Girl and boy: Call the fire brigade mummy!

Mother: The fire is enormous!

Girl: Please mummy call 999!

Mother: Mrs Walton speaking.

This is an emergency! There is a very big fire in a shop. Can you come immediately?

It's the bakery in Pudding Lane, London.
